

RESEARCH AND PUBLICATIONS

Research and Publications

ASCON engages in action research as a means of improving public and corporate policies, promoting “best practices”, and for enriching the content and methodologies of its training programmes. The College research activities are both self-initiated and client-driven, ASCON has undertaken the following studies in recent year.

- + Impact Assessment of ASCON Training Programme from 1990 – 2005
- + Purchasing and Materials Management.
- + The Attitude of Nigerians towards the Prevention of HIV/AIDS: Ignorance or Defiance.
- + Resource Control and National Integration in Nigeria.
- + The Problem of Effective Procurement and Contract Management in the Public Sector.

Quite a number of these research projects have been published. In addition, the College publishes the ASCON Journal of Management, Occasional Papers, Monographs and Books which are widely circulated.

RESEARCH IN PROGRESS

- + Management of Learning and Development in the Nigerian Public Service;
- + Marketing Strategies and Practices in Management Development Institutes in West Africa; and
- + Assessing the Impact of the Treasury Single Account (TSA) in Nigeria.