

PROFILE OF SENUKON OLUFUNMI AJOSE-HARRISON FCIPM, FIMC, FCAI, FPMA, FIMS

Director-General

Lagos State Public Service Staff Development Centre (PSSDC), Magodo, Lagos, Nigeria.

A seasoned human resource management professional and consummate capacity building expert, Senukon Olufunmi Ajoose-Harrison was an alumnus of the Universities of Ibadan and Lagos where he obtained both the Bachelor of Science (Honours) Degree in Sociology and Master of Industrial and Labour Relations (MILR) respectively.

He is a Fellow of the Chartered Institute of Personnel Management of Nigeria (CIPM), Fellow of the Institute of Management Consultants (IMC), Fellow of the Institute of Corporate Administration (CAI), Fellow of the International Professional Managers Association - UK (FPMA), Fellow of the Institute of Management Specialists (FIMS). He is also a member of the Nigerian Industrial Relations Association (NIRA), the Nigerian Institute of Management (Chartered) (NIM) and the Nigerian Institute for Training and Development (NITAD). He currently has a Doctorate degree in Business Administration (Honoris Causa) from Commonwealth University, UK.

He presents over three decades practical experience in Public Service capacity building, research, learning and development and corporate planning. His work life started at the Administrative Staff College of Nigeria (ASCON), where he cut his professional and practice teeth in learning and development, organizational development and research.

In 1997, he joined the services of the Lagos State Government as pioneer Head of Planning and Research at the Public Service Staff Development Centre (PSSDC) Magodo. He was promoted to the position of a full Director of Planning and Research, providing leadership for the Centre's corporate planning and research, including training needs analysis, post-training impact assessments and publications, until his appointment as Acting Director-General by the State Government in May 2017.

In his new capacity as the substantive Director-General of Public Service Staff Development Centre, since November 11, 2017, Ajose-Harrison continued to provide strategic leadership for PSSDC's professionalism for continued currency, relevance and impact within the context of the vision of Lagos State through needs-based learning and development initiatives and other capacity building interventions to the realisation of the goals of the State Government.

He consults for top rated organizations and professional bodies including the Nigerian Institute of Management (Chartered) NIMC, Chartered Institute of Personnel Management of Nigeria (CIPM), the Centre for Management Development (CMD), the Nigerian Industrial Relations Association (NRA), the Nigerian Institute for Training and Development (NITAD) and the Nigerian Employers Consultative Association (NECA) and has several publications in local and international professional journals. He is married and the marriage is blessed with children.